August 16, 2013

With an impressive 15-metre-high glass wine tower, the classy Radisson Blu Hotel, Zurich Airport has been hailed as one of the world's Six Best Airport Hotels for Food-minded Travellers by foodrepublic.com. The American foodie website loved the hotel's prime location, Nordic chic interiors and the fantastic Angels' Wine Tower Bar in the atrium lobby, where acrobatic, lycra-clad "angels" retrieve wine from a selection of 4,000 bottles then put on a show for dinner guests at the grill.
