

MKG Worldwide Hospitality Awards: Women in Leadership Program shortlisted in the Best HR Initiative category, and Club Carlson's Meetings Minus Carbon in the Best initiative in Sustainable Development & Social Responsibility category

November 1, 2015

Our Women in Leadership Program is shortlisted for the Best HR Initiative category and Club Carlson's Meetings Minus Carbon for the Best initiative in Sustainable Development & Social Responsibility category. The Worldwide Hospitality Awards, now in their 15th year, were created by Georges Panayotis, President & CEO of MKG Group, as an international competition and opportunity for hotel groups to highlight their exemplary achievements. The awards belong to the most prestigious recognitions within the global travel industry.