

Radisson SAS Hotel & Spa, Galway selected as Best Business Hotel 2006 at the Hospitality Ireland Awards

November 22, 2006

At the prestigious Hospitality Ireland Awards held over lunch yesterday in the Four Seasons Hotel, the Radisson SAS Hotel & Spa, Galway were delighted to be announced as Overall Business Hotel of the Year 2006.

With fifteen categories of awards encompassing all aspects of the hospitality business in Ireland, and a judging panel made up of some of the leading names in Irish food writing, critique and production such as Domini Kemp, Ernie Whalley, Tom Doorley and Emily Hourican, the calibre of both judge and nominee was extremely high, therefore making Radisson SAS Hotel & Spa, Galway all the more proud of their overall award.

Since opening its doors in 2001, the Radisson SAS Hotel & Spa, Galway has clearly established itself as one of the best hotels in Ireland, winning a number of significant awards to date, with 7 in 2005 alone including the Georgina Campbell's 'Best Business Hotel in Ireland', Evening Herald 'Best Business Hotel in Ireland' Award, Irish Tatler Top 100 Hotels Worldwide listing, HSMIA Award for the 'Best Sales and Marketing Strategy', 'Best Destination/Hotel Resort Spa of the Year' at the Irish Beauty Industry Awards, and Top 50 Best Companies to work for in Ireland.

The spectacular Radisson SAS Hotel & Spa is only a few minutes walk from the centre of Galway, and boasts unrivalled views of Lough Atalia and Galway Bay, while offering easy access to the Aran Islands and Connemara. With 217 spacious guestrooms, the Radisson SAS Hotel & Spa has every possible element the most demanding business traveller could require to work effectively.

With fully equipped meeting rooms and free wi-fi throughout the hotel, an elegant and comfortable bar and restaurant with excellent food and attentive service, the award-winning spirit one spa and leisure centre and, of course, Level 5, their renowned Executive level which provides some of the best bedroom facilities in this country as well as magnificent bathrooms and superlative views, it is not surprising that Radisson SAS Hotel & Spa Galway has once again been acknowledged as Ireland's best Business Hotel at this year's Hospitality Ireland Awards.