

Russia: Rezidor to open a new Radisson hotel in Tyumen

May 21, 2007

Show the full Press Release as PDF

The Rezidor Hotel Group has contracted a new Radisson hotel in the Russian city Tyumen – the property will feature a minimum of 200 rooms and is scheduled to open by the end of 2009. Between 2007 and 2009, Rezidor will open 20.000 hotel rooms; Russia and CIS are amongst the strongest emerging development regions of the company.

“The Radisson Hotel Tyumen is the first internationally branded hotel in town and symbolizes our strategic approach in Russia”, underlines Kurt Ritter, President & CEO of The Rezidor Hotel Group.

Tyumen is located 2.100 kilometers east of Moscow in the Urals Federal District and has approximately 560.000 inhabitants. Founded in 1586, it was the first Russian town in Siberia – today, it is a center of the oil and gas industry.

Services of the new and centrally located hotel will comprise an all day restaurant, a lobby bar, a sky bar, a congress center of some 1.300 square meters and meeting rooms. The Radisson hotel is part of a multifunctional complex offering an office tower, commercial areas, serviced apartments and a fitness area operated by World Class.

Facts & Figures:

Property: Radisson Tyumen (to open)

Rooms: 200 (minimum)

Between 2007 and 2009, Rezidor will open 20.000 rooms.