Responsibilities of the Board of Directors and the managing director

The Board of Directors and the managing director are responsible for compliance with these guidelines and for such internal control as the Board of Directors and the managing director determine is necessary to enable compliance with these guidelines.

Auditor's responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion, based on our audit, to the Annual General Meeting as to whether the guidelines have been complied with. We conducted our audit in accordance with FAR's standard RevR 8 Audit of Remuneration to Senior Executives in Listed Companies. This standard requires that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the guidelines have, in all material aspects, been complied with.

Our audit has included a review of the organization for and the documentation supporting the remuneration to senior executives as well as new decisions related to compliance with the guidelines. Our procedures have also included testing a sample of payments during the year to senior executives. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of whether the guidelines have not, in all material aspects, been complied with. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the compliance of the guidelines in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the company's internal control.

We believe that our audit procedures provide a reasonable basis for our opinion, as set out below.

Opinion

In our opinion, the Board of Directors and the managing director of Rezidor Hotel Group AB (publ) have, during the financial year 2016 complied with the guidelines for remuneration to senior management which were approved by the Annual General Meeting of the Shareholders held on April 24, 2015 respectively by the Annual General Meeting of the Shareholders held on April 21, 2016. As described in the Board of Directors report the Board of Directors exercised its option to deviate from the guidelines adopted by the Annual General Meeting and approved a one-time retention bonus for 2017 which could lead to a variable salary exceeding the maximum percentage provided by the guidelines.
