

Ukrainian Hospitality Awards 2014

Radisson Blu hotels in Ukraine took almost all awards at the Ukrainian Hospitality Awards 2014

Three Radisson Blu hotels in Ukraine received the highest recognition on the Ukrainian Hospitality Awards 2014 – in four hotel categories three prizes went to Radisson Blu properties. Radisson Blu Hotel, Kyiv Podil was named as the “Best 4 star Business Hotel”, Radisson Blu Resort, Bukovel got the title of the “Best Resort” and Radisson Blu Hotel, Kyiv was awarded for the “Best Corporate Social Responsibility”

“Our team and myself are very proud of the three hotels in Ukraine which received recognition and such prestigious award in these un easy times. It shows that our employees and owners commitment is very much appreciated by our guests from all around the world”, - commented Claude Bulté, Radisson Blu Hotel, Kyiv General Manager and District Director for Ukraine.

The Ukrainian Hospitality Award was established in 2011 and provides an opportunity for the hotel industry to showcase their most original initiatives and successful innovations.

The Radisson Blu Hotel, Kyiv has been able to keep Responsible Business activities very lively with more than 15 Think Planet Projects. Among them providing help to deprived of parental care children and to physically challenged people, cooperation with hospitals, eco-activities such as founding bicycle parking, conducting staff health recreation like bike tours and training activities can be highlighted.

Located on the ski slope, the Radisson Blu Resort, Bukovel stands out as one of the finest all year round recreation and resort properties in Ukraine. Unique Carpathians nature, first-class skiing and the hotel's “Yes, I can” spirit attracts guests all year round. SPA and dining facilities are the integral parts of Radisson Blu Resort, Bukovel.

The Radisson Blu Hotel, Kyiv Podil has established itself within a short time frame as the business venue in Kyiv, hosting corporate events, dinners and trainings which turned out to become a true home from home for business travellers. It's charming location in the historical part of Kyiv, Podil gives guest within walking distance the opportunity to visit sites as Andriyivsku Descent or the St. Nicolas Pritiska church.
