

Russian Hospitality Awards: Three Radisson Blu hotels were awarded with four Awards

This award ceremony is held in Moscow and organised by Hospitality Awards LLC. Russian Hospitality Awards is an annual ceremony of awarding best hotels of Russia, confirming hotel's best quality of service.

The categories the hotels have won are:

Spa Hotel of the Year:

There is a story about Peter I, who tasted pure mineral water from a jug while travelling in Europe. "Spasibo" (that means "thank you" in English), said politely the monarch. The source of water became known as "Spasibo" that eventually transformed into "SPA." Certainly, it is only a beautiful legend, and yet, any spa hotel has something that distinguishes it from the others ... a unique set of relaxing procedures for body and soul. We try to take into account all aspects of spa recreation and we are ready to choose hotels which match these criteria.

Resort Hotel of the Year:

A resort hotel includes good infrastructure for active and passive recreation and favorable weather conditions. Resort means always a complex! A pool and often a part of a coastline, several restaurants and bars on the territory, certainly a wide range of sports facilities combined in a closed-type destination, focused on a long-term stay.

Eco Hotel of the Year:

A notion "responsible tourism" is increasingly used in international practice. Each of us likes everything which is "environmentally friendly", "non-GMO", etc. We are proud to announce the winner of the innovators, who build hospitality based on environmental management.

MICE Hotel of the Year:

Business meeting, international conference, the meeting of regional managers, family dinner or a banquet for 500 people, closed romantic evening with friends or elegant wedding, a press conference or a world forum ... In this hotel you can organize any type of event, and its members or guests can enjoy not only flawless organization, but also exceptional service during their stay.
